

CURIOUS CROWD MET MRS. CHADWICK UPON ARRIVAL IN CLEVELAND TODAY

Federal Grand Jury This Morning Began Its Investigation.

Attempt Made to Seize Home of the Celebrated Woman.

President Beckwith Insists That Dr. Chadwick Should be Punished.

Mrs. Chadwick Talks to Newspaper Reporters—Smilingly Greeted Them on Train Enroute to Cleveland This Morning.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 14.—(Bulletin) Northern District of Ohio, this morning commenced an investigation of the Chadwick case. It is composed of 19 members. Judge Wing, a former Newark man, made a brief charge, cautioning the utmost secrecy and telling the jurors they were "specially called together to consider a case so important that it could not wait for investigation by the regular jury."

Receiver Lyon of the Oberlin bank, was an important witness today. The confession of President Beckwith was also read to the jury.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 14.—A curious crowd met Mrs. C. L. Chadwick this afternoon when the "train" arrived from New York, more than two hours late. Hundreds were at the depot and the police and deputy government marshals kept them back.

The woman was taken before Marshal Chandler and booked. It was planned that after the formalities she should be taken to jail. The trip from New York was without unusual incident. She is improving in health. She says she will give out her statement of the case soon.

It was after 8 o'clock this morning when Mrs. Chadwick awoke aboard the train bearing her to Cleveland. She opened the door of her stateroom and looked out into the car, a broad smile on her face said: "Good morning, Mr. Reporters." She was apparently enjoying the best of health, although Frieda Swanson, her maid, said that her mistress was in poor physical condition. Late in the night Mrs. Chadwick became very much nauseated. She appeared faint and the maid notified the officers. She soon recovered and in half an hour was sleeping peacefully. There was only a buffet car on the train and Mrs. Chadwick's breakfast was served in her stateroom. She seemed wonderfully cheered at the prospect of going back to Cleveland. "After all, it's my home, you know. I suppose sentiment can only be one way there, now," she sighed. "Perhaps it will change later on." The deputy marshals kept very close watch on her.

When Mrs. Chadwick was delivered to United States Marshal Chandler he signed a receipt and turned it over to the deputies from New York. He also signed the federal court's order of removal, which the deputies escorting Mrs. Chadwick brought with them. Mrs. Chadwick was then brought before Judge Wing of the United States district court.

Extraordinary precautions were taken by United States Marshal Henkel before he left Mrs. Chadwick in the hands of his deputy marshals at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, New York. All her baggage was overhauled and two flasks were taken from a bag carried by her maid as well as a pair of scissors. The windows of her stateroom were fastened down by wedges. "I have reasons for taking these precautions," were Marshal Henkel's last words. Mrs. Chadwick was not left alone after taking the train. James P. Kelker or Joseph Kumb, the United States deputy marshals, remained either in her stateroom or sitting just outside it with the door partly opened. She had as baggage three small satchels and a cardboard box. The smallest of the bags was carried by Mrs. Chadwick, and she admitted to one of the deputy marshals that it contained valuable papers.

Before Mrs. Chadwick was arraigned United States District Attorney Sullivan said the woman would face the charge filed against her at New York, and that he would not accept a smaller bond. Mrs. Chadwick said: "I am a wreck, physical, nervous and mental wreck. The way my son and maid have been harassed by reporters has been extremely embarrassing. I shall not give bail here. I have the best motive in the world for not doing so. The history of this case from beginning to end will soon be published in a certain newspaper."

Mrs. Chadwick Talks.
To newspaper representatives Mrs. Chadwick said: "I hope the newspapers will emphasize the fact that my husband has not left me. A cable to Dr. Chadwick would bring him back on the fastest steamer. It is an acknowledged fact that I have raised more than $1,000,000, and if I had wanted to take even a small part of it and go away, could not I have done so long before this?"

Mrs. Chadwick was asked, "Is it true, as published, that the $5,000,000 securities held by Reynolds are worthless?" She said: "Now you are asking me questions," and refused to say any more on the question of securities.

Speaking in reference to the closing of the Oberlin bank, she said: "I could not borrow enough money to break a bank without having some security back of it," but she declined to say what this something might be. "Do you think your society friends will go back on you?" "Many of them have offered me financial aid, and I have had cablegrams of encouragement from all over the world. Within the next few days I shall give out a most complete statement of all my transactions from beginning to end, and I will tell everything that has occurred and I will call things by their proper names. Furthermore, I will give the names of those with whom I have done business, and I will show that not only have I stood by my creditors up to this time, but that I will stand by them till the very moment of my death. I intend to pay every dollar of my indebtedness."

Anticipate Another Indictment.
There was a report that a third indictment was found against Mrs. Chadwick charging forgery in connection with the $500,000 Carnegie note. It was not returned, but such a thing may occur before Mrs. Chadwick has seen the end of her troubles with the federal officials. If it does Mr. Keeler will ask for a bond of $12,500 in this case also, making the total amount of surety that she will be called upon to furnish $52,500.

County Prosecutor Keeler said: "Of course the case of Cuyahoga county against Mrs. Chadwick can not come up until after the federal case has been disposed of. If Mrs. Chadwick should give the bond which District Attorney Sullivan will demand I shall immediately cause her rearrest under the two indictments found against her by the grand jury, and I will ask that she give bond of $12,500 on each indictment, or a total of $25,000."

The county grand jury resumed its investigation of the affairs of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, but returned no indictment against her, notwithstanding a report to the contrary. Prosecutor Keeler announced, however, that the appearance of Iri Reynolds, secretary and treasurer of the Wade Park bank, before the grand jury to give evidence of the woman's transactions, had materially strengthened the case against her. It is understood that an indictment relating to the uttering and forging of the $500,000 note on deposit in the Wade Park bank, which was the principal matter considered by the investigating body, has been drafted.

The total amount of securities deposited by Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick with the Wade Park bank was found to approximate $10,000,000. Herbert W. Bell, who, as receiver for the common pleas court, took charge of the securities deposited with the Wade Park bank, declared that he had found them to be nearly double what he had at first supposed. When asked if they possessed value, Mr. Bell said with a smile: "Well, I would not care to pay much for any of them."

CHADWICK HOME

Receiver Appointed by United States District Court Wants to Get Possession.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 14.—Receiver Nathan Loeser, who was appointed by the United States district court to take charge of the estate of Mrs. Chadwick, attempted to take possession of Mrs. Chadwick's home on Euclid avenue. The property has been in charge of a custodian for the Elyria bank of Elyria, O. He refused to admit Mr. Loeser, but opened the door a few inches and peered out at him. The receiver announced that he was in possession in behalf of the United States government. The custodian still declined to admit him until he had heard from the bank's attorney. The receiver departed and reported the result of his mission to United States Marshal Chandler, who said that he would force open the doors of the Chadwick house should such a proceeding be necessary to place Mr. Loeser in possession.

PRESIDENT BECKWITH

Says Dr. Chadwick Knew of Wife's Doings and is Just as Guilty As She.

Oberlin, O., Dec. 14.—President Beckwith, when shown the Paris interview with Dr. Chadwick, who seemed surprised that his wife was so heavily involved in America, said: "It is all a lie. He knows just as much about it as she does, and is just as deeply involved. If anybody is guilty it is he. Why, he knew all about this matter upon his return from Europe last August."

BARBER HEARING

Set for Dec. 28 at Cambridge—Reasons for Motion for a New Trial Are Stated.

Cambridge, O., Dec. 14.—The hearing for the new trial of Ohio vs. H. O. Barber has been set for December 28. In the motion for the new trial the following reasons were set forth by the defendant:

1st. That the verdict is not sustained by sufficient evidence, and is contrary to law. 2nd. Error of law occurring at the trial and excepted to by the defendant. 3rd. Misconduct of attorneys for the prosecution. 4th. Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against. 5th. Newly discovered evidence. Motion to arrest judgment for the reason that the facts stated in the indictment upon which said defendant was tried do not constitute an offense under the law of the state.

Machen Verdict Upheld.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The District of Columbia court of appeals has affirmed the decision of the criminal court in the postal conspiracy cases of August W. Machen, George F. Lorenz, Samuel A. Groff and Diller B. Groff, who were sentenced to two years' imprisonment in the West Virginia penitentiary and to pay a fine of $10,000.

QUIETLY SLEPT

After Murdering His Little Step-son

MAN INJURED THREE OTHERS

Edward Harris in a Frenzy Last Night at Ironton Played Havoc With Knife.

Ironton, O., Dec. 14.—Edward Harris, while in a frenzy last night, cut the throat of his 6-year stepson, cut his wife's throat, from ear to ear, stabbed her in the neck and cut one side of her face almost off, and wound up his bloody work by cutting his 3-year-old daughter about the face. Harris also attacked his mother-in-law, Mrs. Henry Adams, but did not use a knife. Harris then ran from the home and eluded his pursuers about two hours, when he was captured. His stepson lingered an hour and died. His wife and two children are in such a condition as to preclude all hope of recovery. Harris, when arrested, was covered with blood and was found peacefully sleeping on the boilers at the Ironton fire brick plant.

FILTER WATER

Is the Order Issued to Supt. W. A. Veach

BY NEWARK HEALTH BOARD

Sample of City Water Sent by the Board to Columbus for Analysis.

The Board of Health, of the city, which is the Board of Public Service also, Wednesday noon received the report of the State Board of Health as to the quality of water furnished to the citizens, which resulted in the following notice being served on Superintendent W. A. Veach of the Newark Water Plant, the board going into immediate session:

Dear Sir—You are hereby notified that on this the 11th day of December, 1904, the report of the Secretary and Chemist of the State Board of Health was received by the Board of Health of this city and the following resolution was adopted by the Board:

Resolved, That William Allen Veach, Superintendent of the Newark, Ohio, Water Company be and he is hereby ordered to filter all of the water used in said city from this date on, as recommended by the State Board of Health. Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF HEALTH,
City of Newark, Ohio.

The following is a substance of the report of State Bacteriologist Horton on Newark Water:

"Intestinal bacilli are found in small quantity as 1 cubic centimeter, the North Fork is one of the best surface waters in the state, yet there is some pollution; if the pollution is from animal sources there is little danger, but if from human discharges it is a serious matter to the citizens of Newark. After the present dry period, further pollution will follow from surface washings. With typhoid fever at Ulca the filters should be put in operation at once."

MORE JAP TROOPS

Landed at Pigeon Bay to Reinforce the Soldiers Who Are Marching on Port Arthur.

Rome, Dec. 14.—It is today stated that 5,000 Japanese reinforcements have been landed at Pigeon Bay, for troops advancing on Port Arthur fortress from 2nd Marine Hill.

Rome, Dec. 14.—A dispatch from Tokyo today announces that Field Marshal Oyama has issued a proclamation, nominally annexing Southern Manchuria to Japan.

Jap Warship Reported Sunk.
London, Dec. 14.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Chefoo gives a rumor of the sinking of a big Japanese warship off Port Arthur on Nov. 30, 300 persons being drowned, and of two Russian torpedo-boat destroyers by Japanese on Nov. 25. The first of these reported disasters is probably only another version of the sinking of the Japanese cruiser Saiyuu.

TEARS FLOWED

While the Woman Told of A Plural Marriage

MRS. FRED ELLIS ON STAND

In Senator Smoot Hearing Today at Washington—Other Witnesses Testify.

Washington, Dec. 14.—With tears streaming down her face, Mrs. Fred Ellis, former wife of Abram Cannon, an apostle of the Mormon church, now deceased, told the senate committee at the Smoot hearing this morning of the plural marriage of her husband to Miss Lillian Hamlin, after the issuance of the manifesto prohibiting polygamy and against her (the witness') protest.

George Reynolds was the first witness at this morning's session, but he was recalled merely to make an immaterial correction in his former testimony.

Mrs. Ellis was then sworn. She said that she resided at Salt Lake, was born there, the daughter of Argus Cannon, and was the wife of Abram Cannon, her cousin, whom she married in 1879. The latter an apostle, espoused Lillian Hamlin in the month prior to July 2, 1895, after the manifesto prohibiting polygamy. He talked to witness about his proposed plural marriage, having then three wives.

"Did he give as his reason that Lillian Hamlin had been engaged to Abram's brother, then deceased?" asked Attorney Taylor.

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

"Did you reply to him?"

"Yes, sir. I told him I did not think he could marry her. He said he would, but outside of the state. He said that she would be David's wife for time an eternity. I saw him the evening he left, and told him that if he married her, my conscience would not permit me to live with him as it was against the laws of the church. I packed his grip, and he left after saying that Miss Hamlin was going with him."

At this point the witness burst into tears. She stated that her husband returned from the trip very ill and was brought to her house. The Hamlin woman was at her house from time to time, during Cannon's illness. The latter asked witness' forgiveness for the plural marriage, and said he had never had a well day since.

"I think it killed him," Mrs. Ellis added. Mrs. Ellis had no knowledge as to who performed the marriage. She inferred that it was Joseph F. Smith, inasmuch as he went away with them. She had no talk with Lillian Hamlin about it. The witness testified to having three brothers, each of whom had but one wife. On cross-examination she stated that she opposed the Cannon-Hamlin marriage, because she believed that it should not be. She then asked Jos. F. Smith about it in an impersonal way, and he said: "It could not be," Smith was then counsellor.

SMOOT HEARING

Five Witnesses Give Startling Testimony Before Senate Committee at Washington.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Five witnesses were examined by the senate committee on privileges and elections in the investigation of protests against Senator Reed Smoot retaining his seat in the senate. The first witness described the obligations taken by persons who pass through the endowment house, and declared that every one agreed to submit to mutilation of the person if he or she revealed what takes place during the ceremony. Two members of the faculty of the Brigham Young university testified that they have sustained polygamous relations since the manifesto of 1890, and a teacher in the public schools asserted that the church had religion taught in such schools. Mrs. Margaret Geddis, a Mormon woman, was examined concerning her plural marriage, and broke down on the stand.

San Francisco, Dec. 14.—Lafayette Burbank, the California "Wizard of the Garden," has developed a genuine everlasting flower. The plant is called the Australian star flower. It has beautiful fragrant blossoms of crimson hue which retain their freshness of color and odor for months.

San Francisco, Dec. 14.—A party of students started a disturbance today, similar to the riot at St. Petersburg several days ago. The police were unable to disperse the demonstrators without serious trouble.

EARTH RIPPED

A Texas Town Wrecked by Rain of Mud

OIL WELLS BREAK LOOSE

Stones and Lava Hurlled High Into the Air and the People Flee.

Houston, Tex., Dec. 14.—The Humble oil field, 17 miles north of this city, appears a total wreck, due to subterranean convulsions which have turned the deep wells into veritable volcanoes.

From them stones and mud lava have been hurled 1000 feet in the air and fallen over a territory a mile in every direction.

Destruction to property has been almost total according to the best reports obtainable. People fled from the field when the outbreak began and sought shelter as best they could from the rain of stone and mud lava. Clouds of phosphorescent vapors enveloped the field, giving the appearance of a well wrapped in flames. The intonations were like the roar of cannons and could be heard 10 miles away. Derivicks were torn to atoms, and machinery burst to fragments. Great fissures opened in the earth, and from them mud lava and vapors issued.

Humble, which is a section of prairie was located by geologists as a likely oil field, they basing their judgment on a peculiar swell in the surface of the earth. This swell, which may be likened to a large blister on mother earth is some 500 acres in extent. The summit of it has an elevation of 30 feet over surrounding land and the descent is gradual and regular. It is now the theory that subterranean pressure heaved up the section. The drilling into the center of this well began three months ago and a hole that went down 1200 feet tapped a gas deposit that blew the derrick down and sent a stream of oily slush 200 feet in the air. The well then choked up, but rumbled ominously for days and belched vapors and mud forth at intervals.

Work was in progress in five of the wells yesterday when the upheaval came. The earth shook and all of the holes seemed to turn themselves inside out, the deep wells becoming veritable volcanoes. Pipes 1000 feet in the earth were hurled from the ground and twisted into fragments.

The earth was ripped open surrounding the wells in yawning crevices, and mud lava poured from them, running into the creeks. In spots the earth puffed up in mounds. The small, newly erected houses in the vicinity of the wells were bombarded with falling stones and deeply coated with showers of mud.

B. C. Taber, operator and large holder in the field, says that the disturbance was a most awe inspiring spectacle. He viewed it from a safe distance.

Huge chunks of rock were hurled to the clouds and entirely out of sight. The rain of stone and mud extended over a territory a mile from the wells and lasted 50 minutes.

Operations in the field have been abandoned for the present. Many thousands have been spent in the development, and the belief is that the wells, and perhaps the entire field, is ruined. Old drillers say the disturbance is unprecedented. They have seen heavy blowouts, but nothing to compare with the tearing up of the earth and action so much of a volcanic character.

Trains are carrying hundreds of people to the field to view the destruction.

BRIBERY ALLEGED

Against Several Statesmen in Nova Scotia—A Sensation Sprung at Halifax.

Halifax, N. S., Dec. 14.—A sensation was created in political circles by the institution of legal proceedings against W. S. Fielding, finance minister in the federal cabinet; Sir Frederick Borden, minister of militia and defense, and four other leading Liberal members of parliament in Nova Scotia. Petitions filed in the supreme court asked that the parliamentary seats of all six be declared vacant on the grounds of alleged bribery committed by agents in their behalf in the general elections of Thursday, Nov. 3. It is further alleged that Messrs. Fielding and Borden entered into collusion with the Grand Trunk Pacific railway promoters by which funds were provided to aid the election of Liberal members to parliament.

Washington, Dec. 14.—In the house today the Baker resolution for the investigation of the steel trust was tabled.

TODAY'S FIRES

Loss at Minneapolis Not Over $650,000

TWO KILLED, TWO INJURED

Big Blazes Today at Several Points—Panics at New York and Louisville.

Big fires are today reported from Minneapolis, Stamford, Conn., New York, Louisville, Ky., and Philadelphia. The Minneapolis blaze was not so serious as estimated in the early dispatches. The loss at noon today being placed at $650,000.

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 14.—Jacob Miller and John Fellows, firemen, were killed and two other firemen were hurt, and a property loss of $650,000 tells the story of a fire that threatened the retail district at midnight. The totally destroyed are the Boutell Brothers furniture house, $200,000; O. H. Peck's photo supply house, $90,000; the Bant-liff manufacturing company, art goods, $50,000, and the three buildings on Fifth street and First avenue, occupied by three concerns, all owned by Mrs. Irene Hale, whose loss is $150,000.

The Powers department store, across First avenue, was damaged $100,000 by fire and water and smoke before the fire department checked the flames early this morning. The entire destruction of the retail district as far north as the West Hotel was threatened at midnight and appeals were sent to St. Paul for help. Two engines were sent, but the falling of the walls of the Hale buildings gave the firemen no chance to fight the fire and losses were confined to small figures except on the Hale buildings and tenants, and the Powers store, directly facing Boutell's.

Jacob Miller of the fire insurance patrol, entering the Boutell building with a line of hose, fell into an open elevator shaft. His comrades could not rescue him and if he was not instantly killed by the fall he must have perished horribly watching the flames which did not reach him for nearly an hour after his fall, while his companions were unable to help.

Thousands of people saw Tony Wilson fall four stories to almost certain death. Both his legs are broken and his condition is critical. He with Fellows and James Smooce were on the fifth floor with a line of hose and were driven out by a burst of flame. Fellows was burned to death before he could reach the window, and Wilson tumbled headlong to the street. The earlier reports gave the losses much heavier. Some reports sent early this morning, estimated the losses at several millions.

Big Blaze at Stamford Today.
Stamford, Conn., Dec. 14.—A fire, which started in the quarters of the I. O. O. F. about 7 o'clock this morning gutted the grand opera house building, owned by James I. Raymond. The loss is estimated at about $100,000. The fire is believed to have had its origin from a defective electric light wire.

Panic Caused by Fire.
Louisville, Ky., Dec. 14.—Fire in the St. Charles apartments at Second and Guthrie streets this morning threw the 151 occupants into a panic and they rushed from the building scantily clad. The flames were confined to the apartment of J. D. Clark, of the Standard Oil company, with a loss of about $2,000.

Panic at a Fire.
New York Dec. 14.—A small panic occurred at the Hotel Lorette-Brevort during a fire this morning. The blaze started between the ceiling of the first floor and the second floor. The blaze was extinguished after about $1,000 damage had been done. When the alarm was given a number of the guests became panic stricken, but were quieted before harm was done.

Philadelphia, Dec. 14.—The Aberdeen Hotel was damaged seriously by fire this morning. The guests ran out into the ice and snow without waiting to dress. Three persons were overcome by smoke and cold and taken to the hospital.

HARVESTING ICE

To be Done Only With the Permission of the Board of Health—New State Law.

Ice harvesters who gather ice supplies this winter from local streams will be required to secure permits before the harvesting is begun. Last winter the legislature passed a law which provided that all such ice harvesting must be with the permission of the board of health. This last provision is for the purpose of regulating the public's supply of the manufactured ice and ice that may be shipped in from other points. During the summer just closed no attention was paid to the provisions of the law by local boards of health, but the state board of health has called their attention to the provisions of section 2134-1. The law was passed to prevent the marketing of ice harvested from polluted ponds and streams and the consequent spread of typhoid germs and other diseases. It is meeting with the hearty approval and support of the majority of health officials throughout the state.

Every family should have its household medicine chest and the first bottle in it should be Dr. Vogel's Soreway Pine Syrup. Nature's remedy for coughs and colds.

IN THE PARLOR

Of the College the Mothers of Young Couple Met and Ratified the Engagement.

Delaware, O., Dec. 14.—Two mothers hurried here this week to fathom the mystery contained in two telegrams. Neither knew of the other's coming and their meeting in the parlors of Central Wesleyan College was the signal for mutual explanations.

One of the ladies was Mrs. Tunnell, wife of James Tunnell, of Edwarsville, Ill.; the other Mrs. Lanning, wife of former Senator Lanning of Norwalk, Ohio.

To Mrs. Tunnell came a couple of days ago a wire which said:

"I will be home shortly to take a place in the store. Expect myself and bride right after Christmas. I mean it."

To Mrs. Lanning had come a message.

"Dear Mother: My school days are over. I am going to be married and go to Illinois to live."

Mrs. Lanning's daughter Mary and Mrs. Tunnell's son James, Jr., bravely explained that they did not propose to recede from the position they had taken. While coming their books the young Illinoisan and the fair Buckeye could have learned the song of love. The wedding will be on Christmas.

JUMPED INTO RIVER

August Leonard Aged Suicide at Marietta Was a Former Resident of Dresden.

August Leonard, aged 74, who committed suicide at Marietta this week, was an early resident of Dresden. The aged man had been confined to his bed for some days and was scarcely able to arise. Despite this he got out of bed, dressed himself and stepped out of doors. When he did not return in five minutes his daughter, Miss Sievers, went in search of him. A son, Frank Leonard also aided in the hunt. The first trace of the man was found at the river bank, where his cap and overcoat were discovered. The body was found in the ice at the edge of the river.

A Certain Cure for Croup.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail, viz.: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Give it and a quick cure is sure to follow. Mr. M. F. Compton of Market, Texas, says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." ## AMUSEMENTS

The Howard-Dorset company last night presented its play "A Trip to Bombay" and while the seats were not all taken, the enthusiasm on the part of the audience made up for the lack of attendance. The play was a pretty comedy drama, and was accompanied with all the accessories that were necessary to make the performance complete in all its minor details. Mr. Howard in the part of Daniel Sprague was very impressive, and enacted the part in a most pleasing manner. The company is a well balanced one, and the different roles are handled by people who are above average repertoire type. The specialties between the acts were very entertaining, and the De Vans in their acrobatic dog act, were loudly applauded. Tonight "Why Jones Left Home," a comedy drama in four acts, will be the offering, and is a play that has many times been seen at high prices by one night stand companies.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED.

The management of the Auditorium wish to request ladies and gentlemen attending the theatre to remain seated until the curtain falls on the final act, thus affording those who wish to see the closing scene an opportunity to do so.

UNDER SOUTHERN SKIES.

The Nebraska City, Neb., Daily Press says: "Clarence Claggett, manager of the Overland, was tendered a vote of thanks by a large and enthusiastic audience, for booking such a fine company as presented 'Under Southern Skies' last night. When the play was given here two years ago it 'took' to the extent that it was unanimously understood should it come again, all who could possibly go would be there. Last evening verified it. The house was well filled, and the audience filled with delight at the entertainment. There is no particular star in the play, but they were all stars who took part." Auditorium soon.

LULU GLASER.

The engagement of Lulu Glaser, with her new comic opera, at the Great Southern, Columbus, will be Friday evening. Harry B. Smith and Ludwig Englander are, respectively, librettist and composer. The opera met with gratifying success during its run at the Knickerbocker theatre, New York, due of course, in great measure to the exuberant comedy talent of the star. "A Madcap Princess" treats in musical numbers of the romance of Mary Tudor and Charles Brandon. It embraces three acts, and Miss Glaser has the support of a carefully selected company.

MONEY STOLEN

From Mrs. Moon's Room, but No Arrest Was Made Owing to Woman's Request.

Mrs. Moon, who lives above the Newark Steam Laundry at 40 1-2 North Fourth street, reported to Officer Brooke Tuesday night that $6.50 had been stolen from her room. With Officer Hagar, Brooke investigated the matter and circumstances seemed to warrant the arrest of a strange woman who is now rooming there.

Mrs. Moon, however, said she would rather lose the money than have the woman arrested, so the matter was dropped.

Columbus Man Who is Adjudged Insane Says Hasn't Washed for Years—He Looks It.

Columbus, O., Dec. 14.—Living in a corner, filthy to the last degree, and with money hidden in the cracks about him, was the condition in which Deputy Sheriff Elijah Merchant found Henry Webber, about two miles east of Alum creek.

The man lived in the corner by choice, as there is a house on the small farm on which he lived, and his uncleanly condition was also by his own choice, as he told the deputy that he had not washed for four years.

Webber's talk of burning up $10 bills led Merchant to make a search and he found $132.40 about the crib. Webber was declared insane by Drs. Herbst and Tarbell, but while he was in jail a brother, Christopher Webber, appeared, and becoming abusive, was locked up for disorderly conduct after striking his fist under Deputy Sheriff Ed Phalen's nose.

KEYS HURT AGAIN

SON-IN-LAW OF FRANK THOMPSON IS UNFORTUNATE.

After Recovering From Frightful Burn He is Injured in a Runaway in Pittsburg.

Some men seem born to misfortune and one of these is Jack Keys of Pittsburg, who married Mrs. Lucy Thompson, a daughter of Frank Thompson of Harrison street, this city.

Some weeks ago Mr. Keys, who is a gas fitter, was working in an underground conduit and was terribly burned by an explosion. He had just recovered and returned to work, and with several other workmen, was going from the Central station to a job in East Pittsburg when the horse ran away throwing six workmen to the ground. This accident happened about a week ago. Mr. Keys and a man named Stewart were the worst injured and the former is still confined to his bed by the injuries received in the runaway according to a letter received on Tuesday by Mr. Thompson, from his daughter.

Stewart was taken to a hospital, where he died as a result of his injuries. The other workmen escaped with slight bruises.

FIREMEN THROWN OFF

While Apparatus Was Being Hurried to the East Street Fire Wednesday Morning.

While running to a fire on East street, Wednesday, the apparatuses swerved from side to side on the slippery pavement in a most dangerous manner. Firemen Ed Williams and "Teddy" O'Neill, who were riding on the ladder truck, were thrown off near the Warden, but luckily neither sustained serious injuries.

The fire was at 15 East street, where some rags were burning in a cistern.

THE PRESIDENTIAL VOTE.

A statement of the vote at the last election prepared by the New York Times, which is said to be complete for the whole country, except one county in Tennessee and four counties in Michigan, for which estimates are made, makes an interesting exhibit. According to this statement the total vote cast was 13,531,118. This is 427,447 less than the total vote in 1900. Only once before, in 1864, when the Southern States did not vote, has the total vote at a presidential election fallen off. Four years ago the vote was nearly 38,000 in excess of the vote of 1896.

This year's vote was according to this statement, divided as follows: Roosevelt, 7,640,500; Parker, 5,991,391; Watson, 124,411; Swallow, 248,411; Debs, 232,887; Corcoran, 33,519. Roosevelt's vote was 433,137 greater than McKinley's in 1900, while Parker's fell off 1,253,742 from that of Bryan four years ago. The Prohibition vote increased over 40,000 and the Populist 74,000. The Socialist vote for Debs increased 205,909, but the Socialist Labor vote for Corcoran fell off 6,900. Four years ago nearly 7,000 votes were given to candidates of parties which do not appear in the Times estimate. While about two-thirds of the falling off in the Democratic vote seems to be found in nearly equal proportions in the increase given to the Republican candidate and all the other candidates combined, yet the remaining one-third is found in the figures for the falling off of the total vote. This, however, does not represent the extent of the abstention from voting because it is very certain that the full vote of the country ought to have reached to at least 15,000,000, or about 1,500,000 in excess of the number actually polled.

Schiff Favors Tariff Reform.

New York, Dec. 14.—Jacob H. Schiff, head of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., today declared himself in favor of tariff revision. He has just returned from a trip through the country, inspecting industrial and financial conditions. The New York Republicans expect to run Schiff for mayor.

Eczema

How it reddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales! Some people call it tetter, milk crust or salt rheum. The suffering from it is sometimes intense; local applications are resorted to—they mitigate, but cannot cure. It proceeds from humors inherited or acquired and persists until these have been removed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla positively removes them, has radically and permanently cured the worst cases, and is without an equal for all cutaneous eruptions. Hood's Pills are the best cathartic. Price 25 cents.

An Ohio Valley Symposium.

There has been a reduction of prices of John James Platts' admirable symposium, called "The Hesperian Tree, An Annual of the Ohio Valley." Only a few copies remain to be disposed of. The work, which is copiously illustrated and in every way a masterpiece of the publisher's art, as well as an explanation of the literary genius of the Ohio Valley, formerly sold for $5.00; the price for the few remaining copies is $2.50 each. This volume is Platts' best collection of original miscellany in prose and verse, comprising stories, sketches, essays and poems especially written for or contributed to it by writers native to or identified with the Ohio Valley. The number of these is very large, and the personnel representative of the best literary culture of the Middle West. The general interest of the work would appeal to any lover of good books but is special interest to the people of the Ohio Valley ought to give it a place in every private library in this section. The publisher is S. F. Harriman, Columbus, Ohio.

TO ENJOIN BOND SALE

City Solicitor Smythe Files Suit in the Water Works Case

--Reasons Given for Taking This Action--

Interview With the Solicitor.

City Solicitor Phil R. Smythe, on Wednesday afternoon, filed suit in common pleas court for an injunction to restrain the city from selling $300,000 water works bonds. The sale has been advertised to take place on December 15.

According to the action of the city council the money realized from the sale of bonds on December 15 cannot be used to purchase the old water system, but only for the construction of a new water plant. A resolution has been passed by the city council for the appointment of a committee of appraisers by the water company and the city to fix a price on the old water system, and Mayor Orilly has recommended the appointment of a committee of five reputable citizens to examine the appraisers' report and make a report to the council either recommending the purchase of the water works by the city, or the rejection of the proposition.

In case an agreement is made as to price and the city desires to buy the old plant, the city can then sell bonds for the purchase of the plant and make such improvements and extensions as the city may direct.

City Solicitor Smythe furnished The Advocate with the following statement, in writing, Wednesday:

The following request in writing was served on me last Monday by Flory & Flory. This request was made under Section 1778 R. S. which provides that any tax payer may request the Solicitor to enjoin the city from doing anything contrary to law, and upon the Solicitor's refusal to do so, may institute the suit himself.

To Philip R. Smythe, as Solicitor of the City of Newark, Licking county, Ohio:

I, the undersigned, a tax payer of the corporation of the City of Newark, Licking county, Ohio, hereby request you to make an application to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order of injunction to restrain and enjoin said City of Newark, and its proper officers and servants from selling and issuing the bonds of said city and from receiving, opening or transmitting bids for said bonds for the construction of a water works system for said city under the ordinance of said city passed May 16, 1904, and approved by the Mayor of said city on May 17, 1904, and from selling said bonds on the 15th day of December, 1904, under the notice of such sale published by Frank T. Maurath, Auditor of said City of Newark, Ohio, for the reason that the notice of such sale was not, and cannot be, given thirty days before said date fixed for such sale of said bonds, and for the further reason that said notice is incorrect and insufficient.

CHAS. VADAKIN.

Monday evening the Mayor, Auditor, President of the Council, President of the Board of Public Service, and myself met in the Mayor's office for the purpose of discussing what ought to be done.

We were all of the opinion that there was no real foundation for an injunction, but we recognized that if I refused to bring the suit myself that Mr. Vadakin would do so, and that the sale of the bonds on the 15th would be stopped, whoever brought the suit. We came to the conclusion that it would be better for me to commence the proceedings for the reason that I can then control the same, and prevent the suit from being continued from time to time, simply for delay, for of course we can recognize that the real party is not Chas. Vadakin, but that he is being used by The Newark Water company, and that its tactics are to delay the city, if possible, long.

Women as Well as Men

Are Made Miserable by

Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. ## CHARITY HOSPITALS AND NURSES

RELY ON PE-RU-NA TO CURE COUGHS, COLDS, GRIP, CATARRH.

Charitable Institutions All Over the United States and Canada are Curing their Patients of Catarrhal Ailments With Pe-ru-na.

A Letter From Detroit.

Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio: Dear Sir:—"The young girl who used the Peruna was suffering from laryngitis, and loss of voice. The result of the treatment was most satisfactory. She found great relief, and after further use of the medicine we hope to be able to say she is entirely cured."—Sisters of Charity.

This young girl was under the care of the Sisters of Charity and used Peruna for catarrh of the throat, with good results as the above letter testifies.

Pe-ru-na of Great Service.

Another recommend from a Catholic institution in one of the Central States reads as follows:

"A number of years ago our attention was called to Dr. Hartman's Peruna, and since then we have used it with wonderful results for grip, coughs, colds and catarrhal diseases.

"For grip and winter catarrh especially it has been of great service to the inmates of this institution."—Sister Superior.

These are samples of letters received by Dr. Hartman from the various orders of Catholic Sisters throughout the United States and Canada.

The names and addresses have been withheld from respect to the Sisters, but will be furnished upon request.

Ask Your Druggist for a Free Peruna Almanac for 1905.

time ago that Redden was also wanted, but there does not seem to be much in the report. If Place should flop, Wesleyan could get no better than Eckstorm, and the flop would do both teams good. Eckstorm is noted for working up a great defense and Place for developing a good offense. Should these two leaders flop, both teams perhaps would be getting what they have not secured this last year—Columbus Dispatch.

National League Elects.

New York, Dec. 14.—Harry C. Pulliam was unanimously re-elected president, secretary and treasurer of the National League of Professional Baseball Clubs at the annual meeting of the league held here. The present board of directors, composed of John T. Brush, A. H. Soden, John Hart and Barney Dreyfus, was also re-elected. John T. Brush, president of the New York club, was formally presented with the pennant for 1904 for the New York club.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago, during the severe winter weather, both my wife and myself contracted severe colds, which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe, with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston, of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, adding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip."

It is a good plan to take a dose of the Tablets when you have a cold. They promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by all druggists.

WONDERFUL RESULTS EXPERIENCED—PE-RU-NA A FAVORITE MEDICINE.

From a Catholic institution in Ohio comes the following recommend from the Sister Superior:

"Some years ago a friend of our institution recommended to us Dr. Hartman's Peruna as an excellent remedy for the influenza of which we then had several cases which threatened to be of a serious character. We began to use it and experienced such wonderful results that since then Peruna has become our favorite medicine for influenza, catarrh, cold, cough and bronchitis."—Sister Superior.

In every country of the civilized world the Sisters of Charity are known.

Not only do they minister to the spiritual and intellectual needs of those with whom they come in contact, but they minister to their bodily needs.

They are as skilled as trained nurses in their treatment of diseases and are looked upon as messengers of good cheer by countless patient sufferers.

Praise From Canada. Another prominent Canadian institution writes:

"We are happy to tell you that Peruna has given us satisfaction.

"Three patients have tried it, one sixty-eight years old, Renou Dupuis, afflicted with catarrh, is much relieved, more than he has been for a number of years.

"A young girl, fifteen years old, had an obstinate cough, which half a bottle of Peruna caused to disappear."

"As to myself, two bottles have convinced me that Peruna is magnificent as a tonic. Before the treatment I could not walk for a quarter of an hour without experiencing much fatigue. Now I can walk a mile easily."

"Through these three cases we desire to make known to the public the efficiency of your remedy."

Another letter received from the same institution reads as follows:

"Three weeks ago I wrote to tell you how satisfactory we found Peruna. We recommend it highly for colds, coughs, catarrh and neuralgia."

"I have used it myself as a tonic with the best results, taken as directed half a teaspoonful every half hour."

A remedy that would act immediately upon the congested mucous membrane, restoring it to its normal state, would consequently cure all these diseases.

Pe-ru-na Contains No Narcotics. One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotics of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peruna does not produce temporary results. It is permanent in its effect.

It has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh. There are a multitude of homes where Peruna has been used off and on for twenty years. Such a thing could not be possible if Peruna contained any drugs of a narcotic nature.

REV. G. L. HANAWALT WAS BORN SIXTY-SEVEN YEARS AGO.

Prominent Methodist Minister Noted as a Church Builder Died at Cleveland, O.

Rev. Geo. L. Hanawalt, pastor of Rhodes avenue Methodist church, died of peritonitis at his home, 131 Chatham street in Cleveland, Thursday night. He was 67 years of age and his last illness was the first sickness he had ever undergone. He had been ill but a week.

Rev. Mr. Hanawalt was prominent as a worker in the North Ohio conference of the Methodist church, and during the 37 years he had been a minister had built eight churches. He had held charges at Townsend, Clyde, Shelby, Columbus, Delaware, Cleveland and Detroit, Mich. He had been in Cleveland four years, in which time he had built a new church for his congregation. He was secretary of Cleveland General Hospital.

He was born near Newark, July 5, 1837. He attended Otterbein university, but left to join the army during the civil war. After serving two years in the Forty-sixth O. V. I. he studied for the ministry and was ordained in 1867.

Mr. Hanawalt was in many respects one of the most prominent ministers of the North Ohio conference of the Methodist church. He was chiefly noted as a church builder, and during the 37 years of his ministry he built eight church edifices and parish houses in the various cities where he had charges. He was a forceful speaker and as a tenor singer had few equals in the state. For nearly a quarter of a century he was a member of the North Ohio conference quartet.

His wife and two daughters, Miss Cora Hanawalt, a teacher in Gordon school, and Mrs. C. W. Aldrich, 232 Genesee avenue, Cleveland, survive him. He was buried at Columbus.

HEISEY PLANT

OPERATED WITH NATURAL GAS FROM UNION TOWNSHIP.

Pipe Laying From Heisey Wells to the East Newark Factory Has Been Completed.

Mr. A. H. Heisey has finished the piping of natural gas from his wells in Union township to his factory in the East End, the pipes have all been tested, the connections made, and all is now in readiness to turn the gas into the furnaces. All pipes have been covered and the job is now complete.

The test showed that he had tremendous pressure. Mr. Heisey secured a franchise from the state board of public works to lay these pipes along the canal into the city and along the feeder north to Front street. From his point he got a franchise from the city of Newark, to use Front and Indiana streets to the factory.

PATTERSON TRIAL

Sweeney Can't Tell of Effort to Locate Smith—Defendant Is Not Identified.

New York, Dec. 14.—In Nan Patterson's trial this morning, the court refused to allow Police Captain Sweeney to testify as to how the police and prosecution had endeavored to secure the presence as a witness of J. Morgan Smith, brother-in-law of the defendant.

New York, Dec. 14.—A dramatic situation developed in the criminal branch of the supreme court when Nan Patterson, on trial before Justice Vernon M. Davis for the murder of Caesar Young, stood up in the courtroom and faced Pawnbroker Hyman Stern, the witness who sold the revolver with which Young was killed. Stern was unable to identify the prisoner as the woman who accompanied the man to whom he sold the revolver. He was not certain whether this man had a smooth face or wore a mustache. He was not asked to identify the photograph of J. Morgan Smith. Police Captain Sweeney was recalled and identified the photograph. He said that he saw Smith on June 8 last and gave him a grand jury subpoena.

RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism, one of the most painful of all diseases, is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood and attacks the joints of the ankles, knees, hips, elbows wrists and shoulders—even the fingers, toes and soles of the feet. It often attacks the neck, the back and most dangerous of all, the heart. The disease is accompanied by the most excruciating bone pains and soon causes the joints to become stiff and practically useless.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) reaches at once the internal source of the malady and counteracts the acid condition of the blood, dissolves and dissipates the rheumatic poison, relieves the pain, lubricates the joints and builds up the whole system. The fearful ravages of the disease are remedied and the sufferer gradually regains the strength and vigor of perfect health. It cures the most obstinate, long-standing cases where doctors, hot spring treatments and all other remedies have failed.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) is sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle, and is guaranteed to cure.

Botanic Blood Balm B. B. B.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) also cures Blood Poison, Scrofula, Cancer, Ulcers, Eczema, Carbuncles and all Skin Diseases. It is a sovereign remedy for all forms of Catarrh. The poverty of the Russian peasants is instanced by recent figures showing that, notwithstanding the long nights, the average use of the cheapest kind of crude petroleum is only four or five quarters for each family in a year. Much time for work is thus wasted. Many peasants remain in bed from 4 in the afternoon till 8 in the morning.

TEMPLE OF JUSTICE

ANSWER AND AMENDED PETITION OF MR. STURDEVANT.

The Herron-Irwin Suit—Real Estate Transferred—Court House News of a Day.

In the case of Zou Sturdevant vs. Lester W. Sturdevant for answer to the amended petition the defendant says that the plaintiff is a resident of Livingston county and that plaintiff and defendant were married on the 27th of January, 1899, but says that each and every other allegation is untrue, except that on one occasion, being pursued and assaulted by the plaintiff he slapped her with his hand, that he did not intend to hurt her and that he did not hurt her; that he was sorry for allowing himself to be provoked to do as he did do; that she subsequently forgave defendant and continued thereafter to live with him as his wife until January 22, and asks that the plaintiff's petition be dismissed and that the injunction be dismissed. Frank V. Owens, Smyth & Smyth, attorneys for defendant.

Herron-Irwin Suit.
In the case of Agnes Herron vs. Lucy Irwin the plaintiff has filed a petition in the Common Pleas court by her attorneys, Smyth & Smyth, asking that the defendant be enjoined from proceeding any further with the judgment and writ of restitution heretofore secured by the defendant and that she have all proper relief. Smyth & Smyth, attorneys for plaintiff.

Assassins Sentenced.
St. Petersburg, Dec. 14.—Sasonoff, who threw the bomb which killed Minister of the Interior Von Plehve on July 28, and Sikorskiy, his accomplice in the crime, were found guilty by the court of appeals, sitting in the law courts building. The former was sentenced to imprisonment for life with hard labor and the latter to 20 years' imprisonment. The trial had been expected to last at least two days, but it was rushed to a speedy completion in view of the possibility of revolutionary demonstrations.

Town Tied Up by Drought.
Clarksburg, W. Va., Dec. 14.—Clarksburg is at a standstill by reason of the four months' drought, the most severe in the history of central West Virginia. There is not a drop of water to be had except what is imported by train or wagon. All industries have suspended. The snow, a foot in depth, brought no relief, as the weather remains cold. One of the city reservoirs is held in reserve for possibility of fire. The others were emptied long ago. The situation is quite serious.

COLUMBUS STOWAWAY

IS GLAD TO GET BACK

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 14.—Harry McCoy, aged 17, of Columbus, Ohio, son of William McCoy, a traveling salesman, who ran away from his home last June, a year ago, has arrived as a stowaway aboard the British steamer Marina from Glasgow, Scotland.

McCoy was penniless and is being cared for at the Union mission until he can communicate with his parents. McCoy sailed as a coal trimmer aboard the British steamer Hestia and landed at Liverpool. He has visited England, Scotland, Wales and South America. He said that he had a hard time across the ocean and several exciting experiences at sea.

At Cardiff, McCoy stated that he saw much coal shipped to the Russian navy. "I've had enough adventure to last me a life time," he remarked. "I'm going home to stay."

The Marina had a rough voyage from Glasgow.

The Medicine That Cures.

RENO, OKLA., May 11, 1905.

Wine of Cardui absolutely does cure sick women. I consider it the most valuable medicine, and it is the cheapest cure any sick woman can use, as it takes as a rule, only a few bottles to effect a complete and lasting cure. I especially recommend it for uterine or ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, painful, profuse or scanty menstruation and it is a most valuable adjunct to the during the gestative period, insuring easy childbirth and speedy recovery.

It should have a place in every home as it is a true friend to wife, mother and maiden and I most heartily recommend it.

Dr. E. Buchanan
WRITER AND LECTURER.

Dr. Mrs. Buchanan is an authority on the science of medicine and certainly appreciates the great work physicians are doing for the relief of suffering. But this does not deter her from expressing her views in praise of Wine of Cardui.

Mrs. Buchanan's high intelligence and long and successful experience render her advice of great value. Wine of Cardui regulates menstruation, cures bearing-down pains and relieves suffering women of the pain and misery to which their sex is heir. You have the word of Dr. Buchanan and thousands of other eminent women that Wine of Cardui will completely cure you.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

The Letter Robert Wrote

By Kate M. Cleary

Copyright, 1904, by Kate M. Cleary

It was a day like an opal—full of light and sparkle and blue brilliances and tender, greenish shadows. Ray had awakened to it all with a reciprocal rush of joy born of perfect health and almost perfect happiness.

Would Robert feel annoyed that she had failed to keep her appointment with him the day previous? The thought troubled her. She could not bear to remain indoors and eat her breakfast. She would run out in the garden and wait until the postman passed. She had her plunge bath, dressed and went flying downstairs. Singing, she flashed out into the dewy brightness of the young day. She went darting from shrub to shrub and from flower to flower, for all the world like a bright-plumaged hummingbird.

Ah! There was the postman coming down the block now!

"Good morning!" she cried smilingly. She caught eagerly the letter he extended. At first she read a shadow crossed her countenance. Gradually this expression gave place to one of bewilderment. Finally it merged in a look of complete comprehension.

"Robert won't be angry about the broken appointment," she decided.

And she was singing again as she went indoors.

This is the letter Robert wrote:

"Dearest—My godfather, Wilfrid Wolverton, is here. He said he wanted to surprise me. In this laudable ambition he was entirely successful. I was not expecting him—didn't dream he'd show up for a month yet. He has come all the way from Canada to pass judgment on the girl I've selected to be the wife of his godson. And lo, and behold, if I did not insist on his fulfilling the object he had in mind when he started he'd turn around this minute, I believe, and go back to his land of snows and tamaracks. Daff? I hear you ask. No man is saner, dear girl. But he's brimful of eccentricities. You know how prejudiced he was when I wrote him about you that I should think of marrying 'a girl of the States.' But, provided you possessed beauty and intelligence, both of which I assured him were yours in fullest measure, he was disposed to make the best of matters. As bad luck would have it, his ancient and capricious fancy was yesterday ensnared by some forward young person whose acquaintance he made at the railroad depot. She was there, it appears, to meet a friend. He, fatigued by his journey, was overcome by one of his periodic fainting fits. This officious young woman was equal to the occasion. She objected to having an ambulance summoned. One of her relatives, she said, was subject to such seizures, and she knew just what to do. She had him laid flat, his collar loosened, begged a flask from a drummer and dispatched a messenger to a drug store for what proved to be the proper tablets. Anyhow she brought him back to consciousness, had him lean on her arm to the cab stand and saw him safely off to his chosen hotel. She would not give her name. Only laughed away his thanks and went off.

"He has talked of nothing else since. He vows he is going to advertise for the young woman, that he may formally, and substantially if she will permit, evidence his gratitude. So fascinated is he by her that he has practically lost interest in you. 'Such grace!' he raves. 'Such wit! Such a good heart! Oh, my boy, if you had only fallen in love with her!' Which is neither reasonable nor logical, however you take it. I try to tell him of your multiple perfections, but he waves all aside as merely lovely extravagance. I do hope you may be able to eradicate the impression produced by this extremely audacious young person when I bring him to visit you this afternoon. I'm fond of the old chap. He has always been mighty good to me. I don't deny that the cool million he has promised me if I marry, to please him means a good deal to an impecunious bank clerk like myself. But I wouldn't marry a princess of the blood royal, with the crown jewels thrown in, if a little girl named Ray loved me. He says she does. God bless her. Au revoir, then. Yours adoringly, ROBERT."

"Why didn't you meet me at the Art Institute, as you promised?" Ray stopped to address a question to the big Irish setter lying on the ball rug. "Pickwick," she asked, "why did I fail to meet Robert yesterday afternoon at the Art Institute, as I had promised to do?"

Whereat Pickwick, sagacious and discreet, inferred she could not prove the matter by him and only thumped a sympathetic tail by way of reply.

"You know," Ray explained to her beloved little mother, while she was putting the parlor in precise and immaculate order, "we can have things beautiful even if we are poor. Your heirlooms go a long way when helped out by exquisite cleanliness and lots of flowers."

At 4 o'clock the rooms were glistening with polish and glowing with blooms. There were masses of lilies everywhere, and one could catch a glimpse of a table set with snowy drapery and rough old crested silver pink with sweet peas.

Mrs. Fairlie, in her worn black silk and bonnet collar, received the guests with gentle dignity. The tall, handsome man who had introduced him looked searchingly around. He groaned as he heard the silver haired old gentleman launch out in confidence to Mrs. Fairlie.

"The most attractive young creature, my dear madam, I do assure you; a hand like a snowflake and a voice of velvet; heavenly blue eyes, full of the most captivating tenderness."

He sprang from his chair.

"Good heavens! Who is that?"

A girl in a diaphanous green gown, just the shade of a young lettuce leaf, was coming down the room. She had a lot of sunny hair rolled back from a broad white brow. Her lips were red and smiling. And she had—oh, marvel!—heavenly blue eyes full of the most captivating tenderness.

"Mr. Wolverton," she was standing before him, was holding out her hand. "We met yesterday. You are quite recovered, I hope?"

He grasped her hand in a crushing pressure. He turned helplessly to Robert Leith.

"Do you mean to say that this—this angel of your promised wife?"

"I certainly do," laughed the amazed Robert. "I did not dream until this moment that she was your ministrant of yesterday. Uncle Wilfrid, is she not?"

"A forward young person—an officious young woman—an extremely audacious young person," murmured Ray archly.

Robert colored, laughing still more at the reminder.

"She is perfection," declared Wolverton. "I didn't think there were such young women in the States. I still believe," stanchly, "that there is only one."

"You deserve a kiss for that pretty speech," laughed Ray and touched his wrinkled cheek with her fresh young lips.

"God bless you, my dear," he said.

Limitations of "Store Teeth."

A small town in Posen, near the Silesian frontier, still keeps a night watchman who blows the hours on a whistle. The London Telegraph tells that one night he failed to sound his whistle.

The burgomaster summoned the delinquent to account for his negligence. After some hesitation he declared that his last tooth had dropped out and that he could not hold in his mouth the official flat tin whistle.

A council was called, and the subject was gravely discussed. Finally one of the members said that he had heard of a dentist at Breslau who supplied artificial teeth. After long debate the council appropriated money to send the aged watchman to Breslau to get a set of new teeth.

In due time the watchman reported that his teeth had arrived. That night the burgomaster sat up to hear the result. To his astonishment, there was no whistle at 10, at 11 or at midnight. The next morning he summoned the watchman.

"You have got your teeth," he said indignantly. "Why do you not whistle as before?"

"Yes, I've got a new set of teeth," replied the old man, "but the doctor told me to put them in water at night."

Just Looked Wise.

"The queerest client I ever had was also the smartest," said a lawyer who lives in a city in Pennsylvania. "One day he walked into my office, and I recognized him at once as an out of town contractor who had been putting in some sewers for our city. He had, I knew, done the work well, but had had some difficulty with the council, who were holding up his bill. Without a word he handed me a check for $100."

"What's that for?" I asked.

"That," said he, "is your retainer."

"And what do you want me to do?"

"I want you to come along with me to the meeting of the council tonight. You know I have a bill against the city. It would take more time than either of us has to explain the case now, but I am in the right, and I know my argument. All I want is the help of a well known lawyer's presence. I'll do all the talking. All that you have to do is to come along with me and look wise."

"Well, that's all I did do, and what with his arguments and the fact that there was a silent lawyer present, doing his best to 'look wise,' the man got his money, and I got mine."—Philadelphia Press.

The Secret of Her Enjoyment.

He—I don't see how you could have enjoyed that performance at the theater last night. It was abominable. She—I know it, but you didn't sit in a box with a new gown on.

PHILIPPINE TROOPS

Brigadier General Randall Makes His Annual Report to the War Department.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Brigadier General Randall, commanding the department of Luzon, Philippines, in his annual report to the war department, says that the general health of the troops is excellent, the disappearance of cholera having removed the greatest source of anxiety. The improved health conditions are said to be due to the construction of new posts, the absence of hard field service, the drinking of distilled water and enforced abstinence from native fruits and uncooked vegetables. It is recommended that continuous service in the Philippines be limited to two years in order to avoid nervous breakdown, which is said to be quite common among the white troops in the islands. General Randall attributes "the unfortunate record" of a great number of court-martials to the lack of amusement for troops in garrisons and the consequent resort by the men to saloons and questionable resorts.

Faulkner Goes to Prison.

Jefferson City, Mo., Dec. 14.—The conviction of Harry A. Faulkner, former member of the St. Louis house of delegates, on a charge of perjury, was affirmed by the supreme court. Faulkner was sentenced to five years' imprisonment on his second trial. Louis A. Decker, another former member of the house of delegates, convicted of bribery, who received a five-year sentence, was remanded for a new trial. Both cases grow out of the Suburban railway franchise boodle scandal.

British Boat Wrecked.

Colon, Dec. 14.—The British steamer Buckingham, from Baltimore, having on board a cargo intended for the United Fruit company at Bocas Del Toro, Panama, struck on Roncador bank and is a total wreck. Boats from the Buckingham reached New Providence island, Bahamas, where schooners were chartered to bring to Colon the crew and 54 laborers who were passengers on board the steamer.

CISTERN WATER

IS A VERY SCARCE ARTICLE IN NEWARK JUST NOW.

Jerry O'Shaughnessy Tells How He Softens Hydrant Water With Soda Ash, Etc.

It has been months since rain has fallen in this vicinity and the family that has a supply of soft water in its cistern is indeed fortunate. Some have been unkind enough to say that the man who has a supply of cistern water must not use it very freely. This is not exactly true as some cisterns are very large.

But for the benefit of the many whose cisterns are dry, the following suggestion is made by Jerry O'Shaughnessy, as a means of softening hydrant water.

He suggests that it be turned into cisterns and then softened with lime and soda ash. The result is a water which he thinks is much better than rain water. Twenty grains of lime and eight grains of soda ash per gallon should be used.

Carefully slack the lime in a wash tub and fill the tub with water. Stir thoroughly and add to the cistern by pailfuls, stirring contents of cistern constantly, and for 10 minutes afterward.

Dissolve the soda in a wash tub full of water. Stir thoroughly, adding the soda solution in pailfuls, stirring contents of cistern meanwhile and for an hour afterward.

A cistern six feet in diameter will, when the water is eight feet in depth, contain about 1600 gallons. Two and one-half inches of sludge would result from that quantity. To stir the water in his own cistern on Dennison avenue, Columbus, Mr. O'Shaughnessy uses a boat oar.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, Dec. 14.—The arbitration treaty between the United States and Italy, was signed this morning.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The President was today invited by Senator Fairbanks and Representative Warlock to attend the inauguration of Dr. Herbert Welsh, as president of the Ohio Wesleyan University, next June.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The house committee this morning, formally announced to the senate that a special committee had been appointed to impeach Federal Judge Swayne of Florida. It was asked that the senate take the order for the appearance of Swayne to answer the impeachment. The president pro tem of the senate announced that the body would act accordingly.

The first number of the official organ of the Austrian Divorced Catholics Club has appeared. According to it there are in Austria no fewer than 200,000 divorced persons, the majority of whom desire to marry again.

Mr. Carroll F. Strout and Miss Lulu R. Garber were married on Wednesday, December 14, at noon, at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Lester S. Boyce, officiating. The wedding party consisted of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The groom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bela Strout of Harrison, Maine, is a conspicuous young business man and postmaster of Meadow View, Maine. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus Garber of Licking township. The young couple start Thursday morning for Meadow View, Me., where they will live.

MARRIAGE

Of Wm. M. Conley and Miss Myrtle R. Spangler of Granville Street on Wednesday.

Mr. William M. Conley and Miss Myrtle R. Spangler, daughter of Mr. George Spangler of Granville street, this city, were married by the Rev. H. Newton Miller, at his residence, 155 North Fifth street, on Wednesday at noon. The happy couple were accompanied by the bride's father and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stasel of Summit street, brother and sister of the groom. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride's father, where an elegant wedding dinner was taken. Of the newly married couple will leave for Zanesville tomorrow, where the groom is employed in Deacon's meat market, and where they will make their future home.

OPERATION

IS NECESSARY TO SAVE LIFE OF ANDREW SAUM.

Patient Refused to Submit Until After the Arrival of His Lancaster Doctor.

The condition of Andrew Saum, who was struck in the head by a plank at the Helsey Glassworks, Tuesday afternoon, is critical, and an operation is absolutely essential to save his life, as a depressed fracture of the skull four inches long makes his recovery impossible otherwise. This patient, who is perfectly rational, refused to permit, unless his family physician who lives in Lancaster, agrees that it is necessary. Then he says he will submit. The Lancaster doctor arrived in Newark on the 3 o'clock C. & N. car, and is now at the patient's bedside in consultation with Drs. Barnes and Downs, of Newark.

KILLED HERSELF

In Her Fiance's Presence—Excitement Over Suicide of Miss Grace Thompson.

Akron, O., Dec. 14.—Much excitement and mystery prevails at Bar-Leon, seven miles from here, over the shooting of Miss Grace Thompson, who was found dead in her room with Nelson Kepler, her fiance, who called a physician.

She had a bullet hole in her temple, and was lying in a pool of blood, dead, with a revolver near her.

Kepler was engaged to marry her, and said that he and the young woman went home from Bar-Leon together, and that he had gone to her room for a short time.

While he had his back turned, she cried: "I am going to shoot myself!" and before he could stop her she fired the shot.

Miss Thompson was beautiful and accomplished, and had been received into the family of Huston Kepler, the young man's father, who is quite wealthy and prominent, two years ago.

The county coroner has given no explanation of the killing as yet.

CHRONIC COUGHS

OFTEN THE BEGINNING OF CONSUMPTION.

Our Local Druggist, Frank D. Hall, Guarantees Vinol Will Cure Them.

Said Druggist Hall: "This is the season for coughs and colds, and for the benefit of Newark people I want to tell them the best means for a cure."

"Don't dose the stomach with cough syrups. It's no use; they only soothe a little—upset the stomach and do not heal at all."

"The best cure we know of is Vinol which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the healing, curative elements taken from genuine fresh cods' livers, without a drop of oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work. It contains no sickening drugs whatever. Vinol is splendid for lung or bronchial cough. It heals cures and strengthens the sore lungs and bronchial tubes. It makes rich, red blood, builds up the appetite and creates strength; in fact it is the best remedy we have ever sold in our store for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all lung affections."

"Besides the large number of Newark people who have been cured and made well and strong by Vinol, we receive many letters like the following:

"Hon. H. Mason of Jacksonville, Fla., writes: 'A couple of months ago I contracted a severe cold, which it seemed impossible to cure. It settled on my lungs, causing a hard cough, which kept me awake nights, and I soon weakened my system so that I was unable to attend to my duties. Vinol was recommended to me by a friend and I began to take it as directed. The second night I had only one coughing spell, and within a week I was not disturbed once during the night.'

"Naturally my progress was fast after this, and my lungs healed rapidly. My strength returned, and I gained in flesh and health. In fact, this medicine restored me to a perfect condition, and now I feel much better and younger than I have for years. I certainly think it is a wonderful remedy to build up a run down system."

"We ask every person in Newark who has a chronic cough or hard cold to try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if they are not satisfied." Frank D. Hall, Druggist.

BOLD HOLDUP

COLUMBUS MAN WAS ROBBED OF $600 LAST NIGHT.

Thieves Leaped From Darkness as He Drove Into an Alley and Beat Him.

Columbus, O., Dec. 14.—The most daring hold up of the winter took place last night at 9 o'clock, when Louis Backenstoe, 1250 Wesley avenue, was robbed of $600. The job was perpetrated by two men who brutally assaulted their victim.

Mr. Backenstoe had driven down town early in the evening, and it was upon his return that he was robbed. He drove into the alley to reach his barn, rear of his home. When he was within 700 feet of the stable, two men leaped out of the darkness. One caught the bridle of his horse, while the other made toward the buggy.

When the horse was stopped, Mr. Backenstoe got out of the buggy, intending to grapple with the man at the horse's head. Just as he reached the ground he was struck over the head with a blunt instrument. He fell to the ground unconscious.

When he regained consciousness Mr. Backenstoe was without his money and watch. The horse had wandered to the barn, where it was being cared for by a man employed there.

As soon as the hold up became known the police began an active search for the highwaymen. They had but a meagre description, however, and little hope was expressed that the men would be caught.

Mr. Backenstoe deals in horses, and this fact accounts for him carrying at times large sums of money.

"ALUMNUS"

Thinks Children are Required to Study Too Much to Keep Up in School.

(Communicated.)

Last night's Advocate printed a New York dispatch, headed, "Three hours study enough for children." This dispatch declared that a report will be made to the school board of New York by the superintendent, saying that children in the lower grades are suffering from overwork and that more than three hours of class work makes the children restless.

The writer feels that this dispatch from the metropolis is equally applicable to our own schools at the present time. Nor does he think that this restriction of study hours should be confined to the lower classes only, but should apply with equal force to those of the higher grades as well.

In the upper grades the pupils are compelled to study from six to seven hours daily and added to this many of the scholars in order to 'keep up,' as they style it, and prevent them from 'falling below,' are compelled to study at night, thus putting in about two or three hours more at their daily work. This we take it is a very grave mistake. The brain as well as the body needs rest, and if this studying is carried on for any great length of time, the constitutions of the pupils must of necessity suffer, and as a result we have nervousness as well as insomnia.

We do not believe in this "night studying," anyway, and think it should be discarded from our curriculum. Those who put in seven hours of day study must certainly should have their minds free from further application for the day. The "cramping system," so common in many of our public schools, is reprehensible in the highest degree and should not be tolerated for a single moment.

What benefit after all is a thorough classical or scientific course to our young girls and boys, if it is to be sought at the expense of health and strength of both body and mind? Many precious lives have been and are being sacrificed by our application to study.

The health of our scholars should be paramount to every other consideration, and the study hours should be lessened, and this "night studying," abandoned.

If we wish the rising generation to be strong and vigorous, both mentally as well as physically, let us not tax their capacities to their utmost as we are now doing. There is something fundamentally wrong in the training of our pupils at our public schools and this "forcing process," should be abandoned.

A strong mind, and a sound body is what we most need and it is far better that the rising generation should have strong, vigorous bodies, even if at the sacrifice of mental culture.

Will we act wisely in this matter or will we continue in our present mode of teaching?

What, after all we would ask is an education worth it, if it is to be gained at the expense of the body? We are a good deal like the celebrated Doctor Johnson, who said, "I would rather have a wife that could set up a good square meal, than one that could talk Latin and Greek."

Mental culture is all right so long as it is kept within proper bounds, and does not interfere with our physical make-up, otherwise it is not.

Give us a rugged, physical constitution, and the brain will take care of itself. ALUMNUS.

APPENDICITIS.

The Most Dreaded Disease of Civilization is the condition known as appendicitis. Once fully established, nothing will remedy but the cold knife. It has once been thought that this inflammation was caused by seeds or foreign bodies entering the appendix, but this theory is long exploded.

The true cause of appendicitis is sluggishness of the bowels, constipation and the gases which are formed in consequence produce germs known to the scientific physician as the Bacilli Colli Commensalis. Now to avoid this formation of gas germs, constipation and the resulting inflammation, take Smith's Pileapple and Butternut Pills, which have been tested in all the various diseases of the stomach, bowels and liver, and found to be the greatest and best preventive remedy known.

You may be very sick at night; Smith's Pileapple and Butternut Pills make you well in the morning. They will quickly and permanently cure.

PATHETIC LETTER LEFT BY
FINCH FOR HIS MOTHER

Defaulting Treasurer of the Bartenders
Association

Amos Finch Declares He Will Live a Different
Life in the Future

Admits That He Lost All His Own Money and Some That Didn't Belong to Him in Gambling—The Letter
That He Wrote His Mother.

Mrs. Anna J. Finch, the widowed mother of Amos Finch, the defaulting treasurer of the local bartenders' union, is heartbroken over her son's actions, and to her they are inexplicable. She knew nothing of her son's actions and considered him a model son. He came home after his work Sunday night and went to bed as usual. She got up Monday morning and went to his room to call him to go to work. He was not there, and every kind of fear haunted the poor woman, except the truth. She made frantic search for her son, even going into the cellar, thinking he had gone down there to do something with the natural gas and had been suffocated.

She finally went to her rooms, and soon after was called down stairs by Mr. Will Carson, who handed her a sealed envelope addressed to "Mother," and further down on "the envelope" were the words, "Mrs. Finch." The envelope contained a letter, which nearly prostrated the poor mother as she read the following words:

"Dear Mother—As I am going away and do not like to tell you to your face, I will drop you a few lines. Mother, I am not going away because I do not like you. It is because I have done wrong and do not want to stay. I have lost all my money gambling, also money that did not belong to me.

"Mother, I think if 'Honus' will get you one more boarder you can get along for a while. I love you as well as I ever did, also sister Nettie.

"I hope that Nettie will be a good girl and make a lady out of herself. I hope she will mind what you tell her. I think you can get that school house and if you do you can get along. Ma, you have been good to me, but I have not done right, but ma, from this on I want you to know that you have got a boy that is going to live a different life.

"I will help you as soon as I can. It may be some time before I write again, but, mother, for God's sake do not be worried about me.

"Get along the best you can and be good to my sister Nettie, because I always liked Nettie.

"Don't let this worry you please. I cannot write no more, now good bye, mother. AMOS."

This was the first intimation that Mrs. Finch had of her son's waywardness.

The word, "will" in the sentence, "I will help you as soon as I can," is nearly blotted out by a drop of blood, Mrs. Finch believing that the young man's nose was probably bleeding when he wrote the letter.

She said that Amos had always been an exemplary son, and had made a home for her, and his sister Nettie, since he was 15 years old, and never failed to provide for the family to the limit of his ability.

Nettie is now 13 years old, and Amos also leaves behind two married sisters living in Barnesville.

A CHADWICK EYE

HAD THIS MAN FOR WHOM A
HUNT IS NOW ON.

He Induced Mrs. Cavanaugh to Give Up Her Valuables While Stopping in Chicago.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 14.—The Chicago police are on a still hunt for a man with lustrous "Chadwick eyes," by the name of Jefferson, who is alleged to have hypnotized Mrs. W. H. Cavanaugh, of Burlington, Iowa, this week and induced her to give him cash and jewelry amounting to $1,700, while the pair were sitting in the parlor of the Continental Hotel, Madison street and Wabash avenue, in the presence of a half dozen people.

"This man must have been the one who taught Mrs. Chadwick," said Detective Anderson of Central Detective headquarters, who is detailed on the case.

Mrs. Cavanaugh came to the central detective headquarters in a daze. She was found by a policeman near the Great Northern Hotel.

"I met the man, who is a fortune teller, at a boarding house in Burlington," said Mrs. Cavanaugh. "I had remarked in a general conversation that I intended to leave for Chicago Sunday night, and my surprise was great when I found him on the train with me after leaving the station. I was on my way to Ft. Wayne, Ind., where my husband is ill at the home of his father. I intended to stop between trains in Chicago, and went to the Continental Hotel to sit in the parlor and rest. The man appeared shortly after I got there.

"I don't know how it all happened, but when he started talking to me I began to feel helpless. When he asked me for my jewelry I took it off and handed it to him without a word. He then took from me an oil sack, containing $1,010, all the money my husband and I had in the world. He then left me. It was several minutes before I could collect my thoughts. I wandered out into the street and asked a police officer where I could find a detective. He directed me to a police station where I told my story.

The police are searching the city for Jefferson.
